I am a designer of fine jewelry and in my business its integrity, quality of product and value that gives my customers a sense of confidence. Jim Gerald has performed in a similar manner building our prized possession, our home. His knowledge of quality and the technical aspects of building a home are second to none. Jim is a wonderful person who wiU take your hand and lead you through the process as painless as possible. In fact, my wife and I enjoyed building a home, which had a lot to do with Jim's personality. If you are looking for everlasting quality then Jim Gerald is the one to work with. Feel free to call us for a reference at (516) 626-0078.
